ALERT: NSW LIQUOR AMENDMENT BILL 2011 (NO 2) 3 STRIKES TO BE LAW FROM 1 JANUARY 2012

The Liquor Amendment (3 Strikes) Bill 2011 (No 2) received Royal Assent on 16 November 2011 and will come into effect on 1 January 2012. For more information on this Bill refer to Taylor Woodings' recent Alert of the Liquor Amendment Bill 2011 (No 2) or at taylorwoodings.com.au.

With the law to take effect shortly, stakeholders such as financiers and landlords of licensed venues, especially leasehold venues, will need to be aware of the potential risks to the businesses with which they are involved.

Minister George Souris announced in Parliament yesterday that the Government is currently contacting every licensee in New South Wales to inform them of the commencement date and advise them to review their operations to mitigate the risk of committing serious liquor offences.
