TAYLOR WOODINGS APPOINTS NEW PARTNER TO BRISBANE OFFICE

15 November 2010

After recently expanding into Queensland, Taylor Woodings is delighted to announce the appointment of Stefan Dopking as a Partner in the firm's new Brisbane office.

Joining today, Stefan brings to Taylor Woodings a wealth of industry experience in corporate receiverships, business reviews and financial health assessments for lenders and directors. Stefan's experience across a range of industries, including tourism, manufacturing, agriculture and property, will further enhance Taylor Woodings' expertise in these industries.

Michael Ryan, Managing Partner of Taylor Woodings, commented: "We are very excited to have Stefan onboard. His professional experiences, strong business acumen and extensive expertise in accounting and insolvency will further strengthen our capabilities and service offering to clients."

"Stefan's appointment highlights Taylor Woodings' growth in the Brisbane market," said Mr Ryan.

Taylor Woodings opened an office in Brisbane in August this year. The firm provides clients with a truly national service across Western Australia, Victoria, New South Wales and now Queensland.
